

Grandpa was George Robert Daws

Grandpa's brother was Edward Daws.
Both men were apparently carpenters of some repute, but not so skilled as their father who made chairs by Royal command for George IV - William IV
1762 - 1830 1765 - 1837

Grandpa's brother's daughter was married, her name being Mabel.

Her married name is Pederick.
Phyllis her daughter then married Joe Pederick her cousin.

Grandad Daws, his name was George Robert he was born at London England
He was married at Blanket Flat
31st May 1866